y.o.u.

How come you hate it
You must feel great sorrow
And i...
So many pains and tears in my life

Shake it off
Something like a flake
No effect on our life and quest
You've got times it's gonna be all right
There's nothing to worry about.
You make me feel like free every time
I don't need anything else
Even for just a short while

You and I forever
Time goes by, together
Till you die forever
But I won't try to get back

You ain't like a stunner
But I don't mind. around
Will you love forever
Ain't no time to get back

Let's fly away
Well I'm not sure
I guess it's right time
It might be worth in your eyes

One more time. Together
I don't mind if you've got your way
Two of us forever
Three four five, take one step at a time

You and I forever
Time goes by, together
Till you die forever
But I won't try to get back

You ain't like a stunner
But I don't mind around
Will you love forever
Ain't no time to get back
